Spotswood Hotel,

RICHMOND, Va., August, 1865.

IT having been reported that the Spotswood Hotel had been confiscated and closed, the proprietors deem it proper to assure the Public that such is not the case. The House is open for the accommodation of visitors, as it has been from its opening day in September, 1860.

The House has been remodeled, renovated, refurnished, and put in perfect order throughout, and the traveling public may rest assured of finding as comfortable accommodations with us as can be found in any first class Hotel, North or South.

Our friends, patrons, and the travelling public generally, visiting Richmond, are cordially invited to make their home with us, and no pains will be spared to make them comfortable, as we are pledged to sustain the well known reputation of the House.

Our former patrons will find the old employees of the House still in our service, were they will be pleased to welcome them as formerly.

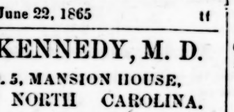
Pioneer Line of Steamers,

—FOR—

Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Boston, via Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal.

THE COMMODIOUS STEAMERS

PIONEER AND COMMODORE ADAMS,



Will leave New Berne for Norfolk on TUESDAY of each week at 8 o'clock, A M, connecting with the different lines of steamers for the above-named points. Shippers of Goods will receive every facility and accommodation for the transportation of the same, as arrangements have been made with the different companies to forward goods to this line at low rates and without delay. Each of these steamers are capable of carrying through the canal without difficulty, as they were built expressly for the trade. They are fitted up with STATE ROOMS and BERTHS capable of accommodating thirty-five passengers. Every attention will be paid to the comfort of passengers, who will not be subject to the inconvenience of transfer to other vessels, but will be taken through direct without change.

TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY TONS OF FREIGHT

The tables of the steamers are liberally supplied with the best the market affords. Families travelling will find it to their interest to take this line, as they will thereby escape the danger and discomfort of a sea route, and the fatigue of railroad travel.

On the 15th of December next, if the business of the line warrants it, the steamer WILLIAMS will be put on the route, and tri-weekly trips will be made.

For freight or passage apply to WHITFORD, DILL & CO., New Berne, N. C.

NEW BERN, NORTH CAROLINA, Nov. 1st, 1865.

WE HAVE this day formed a Co-Partnership under the name and style of

WHITFORD, DILL & CO.,

For the transaction of a Shiping and

GENEARL COMMISSION BUSINESS

in this Town, West Side Craven Street, on Old County Wharf.

To the sale of COTTON, NAVAL SAORES, TOBACCO, LUMBER, STAVES, SHINGLES, CORN, and all kinds of Produce and Merchandize, and also to the sale and purchase of

Real Estate and State and other Stocks,

we will give personal attention.

☞ We are Agents for MURRAY'S NORTH CAROLINA SEMI-WEEKLY LINE OF STEAMSHIPS, between NEWBERN and NEW YORK, and for Sailing Vessels for BALTIMORE, PHILADELPHIA, and other Ports in the United States, and for different Ports in the West Indies. Thus it will be seen that we are furnished by our own vessels with the amplest facilities for the speedy transportation of Freight and Passengers. But in addition to those, there is a Weekly line of OCEAN STEAMSHIP on the same route, and a Tri-Weekly line of Steamers by inland route through Albemarle and Chesapeak Canal to Norfolk, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York; hence Merchants and Shippers entrusting the transportation of their freight to us, can rely with confidence on its speedy transit.

From the Petersburg Index.

The following beautiful lines, by Col. Theodore O'Harra, were written on the burial of the gallant Kentuckian who gloriously fell at "Buena Vista:"

The muffled drum's sad roll has beat
The soldier's last tattoo;
No more on Life's parade shall meet
That brave and fallen foe!
On Fame's eternal camping ground
Their silent tents are spread,
And glory guards with solemn round
The bivouac of the dead.

No rumor's of the foe's advance
Now swell upon the wind:
No troubled thought at midnight haunts
Of lov'd ones left behind;
No vision of the morrow's strife
The morrow's dream alarms;
No braying horn or screaming fife
At dawn shall call to arms.

Their shivered swords are red with rust,
Their plumed heads are bowed;
Their mighty banner trailed in dust,
Is now their martial shroud;
And plenteous funeral tears have wash'd
The red stains from each brow,
And the proud forms by battle gashed
Are free from anguish now.

The neighboring troop, the flashing blade,
The battle's stirring blast,
The charge, the dreadful cannonade,
The din and shout are past;
No war's wild note or glory's peal
Shall thrill with fierce delight
Those breasts that never more shall feel
The rapture of the fight.

Like the fierce Northern hurricane
That sweeps the broad plateau;
Flushed with the triumph yet to gain
Came down the serried foe—
Who heard the thunder of the fray
Break o'er the field beneath,
Knew well the watchword of that day
Was "Victory or Death."

Long had the doubtful carnage raged
O'er all the stricken plain;
For never fiercer fight had raged
The vengeful blood of Spain.
And still the storm of battle blew—
Still swelled the gory tide—
Not long our stout old chieftain knew
Such odds his strength could bide.

Full many a Northern breath has swept
O'er Angastura's plain;
And long the pitying sky hath wept
Above the mouldered slain;
The raven's scream, or eagles flight,
Or shepherd's pensive lay,
Alone awakes each sullen height
That frowned o'er that dark fray.

Sons of the "Dark and Bloody Ground!"
Ye must not slumber there,
Where strangers step and tongues resound
Along the heedless air—
Your own proud land's heroic soil
Shall be your fitter grave,
She claims from War her richest spoil,
The ashes of her brave.

So 'neath that parent turf they rest,
Far from the gory field,
Borne to a Spartan mother's breast
On many a bloody shield—
The sunshine of their native sky
Smiles sadly on them here,
And kindred eyes and heart watch by
The heroes' sepulchre.

Rest on, embalmed and sainted dead!
Dear as the blood you gave!
No impious footsteps here shall tread
The herbage of your grave—
Nor shall your glory be forgot
While Fame her record keeps,
Or Honor points the hallowed spot,
Where Valor proudly sleeps.

Yon marble minstrel's voiceless stone,
In deathless songs shall tell,
When many a vanished age hath flown,
The story how you fell.
Nor wreck, nor change, nor winter's blight,
Nor time's remorseless doom,
Can dim one ray of holy light
That gilds your glorious tomb.

SPAIN AND CHILE.—The pending war between Spain and Chile grows out of the refusal of the latter to furnish supplies to Spanish war vessels, which were furnished to those of Peru during the late hostilities between these two countries. For the losses and inconveniences thus suffered the Spanish Government demanded indemnity of Peru, and authorized Admiral Pareja, commander of its naval squadron in the Pacific, to act, if necessary, in the double capacity of minister and warrior—to negotiate for reparation, and, if not successful in that manner, to seek it at the sword's point and cannon's mouth. The civil portion of his mission was a complete failure, owing to the peremtory and indignant refusal of the Chilean Government to accede to his demands, which were made in an insulting and threatening manner, and, therefore, on the 24th of September, he assumed the belligerent portion of his mission, and instituted a blockade of the coast of Chile. Immediately afterwards the Chilean Congress declared war against Spain, authorized a loan of twenty millions of dollars, and granted the President unlimited power to raise troops and increase the navy. Up to the date of latest accounts no collisions between the hostile forces had occurred; but Admiral Pareja kept up his blockade, and threatened to bombard the city of Valparaiso, and the Chileans were arming. The Spanish squadron, however, is entirely unequal to an efficient blockade, and even from Valparaiso two well armed Chilean war vessels, on an undivulged expedition, succeeded in getting to sea through it. The foreign ministers had held meetings and protested against the action of Pareja.

A CRUEL JOKE.

Some mad wag gets off the following on Gen. N. P. Banks, better known as Commissary Banks:

Gen. Banks can't Take the Oath.—By a law of Congress, before any member can take his seat, he must swear that he has never "directly or indirectly, given aid or comfort to the enemies of the Union." Now how can General Banks (if elected,) get over that point? Why, the "rebs" called him their chief quartermaster, and Stonewall Jackson, when short of provisions, always started for Bank's commissary. In Texas, he fed Dick Taylor's command, and supplied them with six month's food and clothing, four wagon loads of paper collars, and other dandified military stores. Perhaps Banks can get over this thing, but how?

We refer, reader, to your teeth. Be careful. Next to your eyes, your teeth are the most precious of your facial organs. Use the Fragrant Sozodont. It will at once arrest decay and prevent what are now, but mere specks from being orifices. In brief, it will save and beautify your teeth. And it is the only thing that can save them. Reflect on this.

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA.

Judge Mitchell of this place, has just returned from the Trans-Mountain Circuit, where he held Courts in all the Western counties. We learn from him that the "situation," in that region is much more favorable to law and order, than it was a few months ago. The desperadoes nearly all fled at his approach, or had previously departed, into East Tennessee and other parts, and could not be reached by legal process, and it was supposed they could not return to do further mischief. The remaining citizens were orderly and seemed disposed to engage in building up the waste places.—He represents that portion of the State as having suffered immensely from desperadoes and the lawless, and many murders of innocent men had been committed. The people of the West, no doubt, feel greater security since the visit of Judge Mitchell, and the opening of the Courts, although the proper punishment for crimes of great magnitude, in many instances, could not qe meted out to offenders. The citizens were organizing County Guards for futnre protection, and secure themselves from violence should it be offered from any quarter.

THE FARMER,

A MONTHLY JOURNAL,

DEVOTED TO AGRICULTURE, HORTICULTURE, THE AUXILIARY MECHANIC ARTS, AND TO HOUSEHOLD ECONOMY.

To be Published at Richmond, Va.

The undersigned propose to publish in this city—commencing in January, 1866—a monthly Journal to be styled "THE FARMER," whose pages shall be devoted to Agriculture, Horticulture, the auxiliary Mechanic Arts and to Household Economy. A Journal which shall faithfully and successfully represent these cardinal interests by the dissemination of practical information & thorough, sound instruction, will supply a desideratum which is widely and deeply felt in the present exigency of our affairs, and ought, therefore, (we should think) readily to commend itself to popular acceptation, and command, in return, a remunerating patronage. "Faithfully" and "successfully" to support these interests, requires a Journal of the highest order of its kind. It is to nothing short of this high standard of public usefulness that "The Farmer" aspires, and to reach and maintain it, will be an object of unremitting effort and unsparing liberality of expenditure. It seeks recognition as a worthy organ of these cardinal branches of national industry, of which it assumes the special advocacy, and hopes to meet the requirements of the position satisfactorily to those whose interests are more immediately involved.

We are fallen upon times of peculiar and unexampled difficulty. The sudden and violent overthrow of African slavery, without premonition of its near approach, or preparation for the event, interwoven, as it was, with the very texture of our social constitution, has rendered all past experience with respect to the economy and regulation of labor nugatory, razed to its foundation the entire system of Southern agriculture, and necessitated its re-construction and re organization in accordance with the recent changes in our circumstances and relations. Suddenly launched upon a tempestuous sea of danger and perplexity without the polar star of experience to guide us, we must, as best we can, improvise the measures which appear at the moment the best adapted to the purposes of present security, and as calmly tentative, await the slow progress of as we may effort and empirical practice for the development of facts and the matured fruits of experience and observation from the careful comparison and generalization of all which, sound principles may be deduced for our future guidance and direction. Then will a new creation of order, harmony and beauty spring out of the chaotic disorder and confusion which now prevail. Then will the desolation and ruin which mar the face of the country be repaired. And not till then shall wholesome and stable rules and regulations control the entire system of husbandry, with its adjuncts and subsidiaries, and give force and efficiency to the administrative measures necessary for the conduction of all its operations to the most satisfactory and profitable results.

To facilitate and promote these important considerations, a good agricultural journal is an obvious necessity. A medium of communication, for the interchange among farmers of views and opinions entertained by them respectively on subjects appertaining to their common calling, is indispensable, and they especially need a vehible of intelligence for the transmission of the earliest notice of improvement in any department of husbandry, that, by a wide diffusion of such notice, the improvements may be adopted in practice and thus prove a general benefit to the farming fraternity.

Now, to sum up in a word: It is to meet this obvious and pressing necessity that the proprietors propose to publish the above described paper, and in behal of the undertaking they respectfully solicit the patronage of the public.

The best talent, both practical and theoretical which the country affords, will be commanded in aid of this enterprise, and no expense will be spared in the effort to make the Journal complete in all respects.

It will be printed on good paper and with clear type, and will comprise thirty two pages of reading matter. An advertising sheet of capacity sufficient to accommodate the advertising patronage of the Journal will be added.

Papers disposed to exchange with The Farmer will send their papers at once.

AGENTS WANTED.

We wish to establish agents in all the counties of this State as well as in all the principal towns and cities both North and South, for the purpose of procuring subscribers to the Daily and Weekly Banner—also, to obtain advertisements.

The Daily Banner has the largest circulation of any paper in Western N. C., and as an advertising medium, it is the best that could be desired.

We allow to agents acting for us 25 per cent. on all advertisements and subscriptions obtained according to our rates. They will deduct this amount and remit us the remainder.

This is a White Man's Government.

This noble sentiment of President Johnson should, as it will become, a political axiom—Innovations are dangerous. Our forefathers after seven long years of suffering and self-sacrifice, and several more of consideration and reflection inaugurated the Government of the United States as a white man's Government. African slavery was recognized. The Government framed by our ancestors, was the wisest, freest, and the best Government ever ordained for the well-being of any peoples. One grand innovation has already been effected, or will shortly be, in the Constitution. Millions of slaves have suddenly been emancipated. This, it must be conceded, is a most radical change. Would it not be prudent, now, to pause in the work of reform? It is almost impossible for human foresight to predict the effect and influence of any change in the municipal law of the country—then how much more so, to forecast the manifold complexities that would arise by extending reform so as to confer upon a class lately steeped in the ignorance of complete and unqualified slavery, the full rights of citizenship. There are many evils which would necessarily spring out of it.

The negro is not prepared for it—he cannot yet comprehend his rights and duties as a freedman, much less those which attach to the character of full citizenship. He labors under myopy of the intellectual faculties. There is another and a most potent reason for keeping him in his present status. Dependence has been his condition until it has become part and parcel of his nature. In trouble, difficulty or danger, he will seek the aid, counsel and support of the white man. Trials and suffering are in store for him. When they come and bear him down he will seek, in the great majority of cases, his old master. He may receive assistance and protection. If allowed all the rights of a freeman, he will pay the debt, in the jury box, in the witness-stand and at the ballot-box. The rich men will rule the country, and the poor white's vote will prove ineffectual against the numerous colored retainers of the rich man. The voice of the poor white man will no longer be heard and our free country will practically become an oligarchy of the most odious stamp.

The Legislature.

This body, if it performs the manifold duties devolved upon it by the exigencies of the times, must work hard and diligently. We sincerely hope that they may avoid worne-out abstractions, and address themselves with fitting energy to the arduous task of benifiting the country. Many matters of the gravest importance will engage their attention, and we still hope, notwithstanding the complexion of that body, that after a few more faint struggles at making Union records from those who hav'nt had a chance before, they may turn to with sincerity of purpose and concert of action to pass the laws demanded by the necessities of the times.

The Freedmen's Code, the Banks, the the Revenue and Currency, the Railroads and the Constitutional Amendment will of course be considered, and some action taken to remedy the existing state of affairs.

Various offices have to be filled and of course, the so-called Union men will divide everything among themselves. We hope that so far as the political offices are concerned, they may be filled by straight, unadulterated Union men, and not with those shallow pretenders to the title, who do little else than make speeches to prove themselves the very best of Union men. That cock won't fight any longer and the people will not suffer themselves to be any longer stultified by men who claiming for themselves consistent Unionism during the war, nevertheless voted for secession and voted for Mr. Davis.

These men are known; they feel that their political fate is sealed, and that they had best make hay while the sun shines.

It is said that the President has decided to sustain Gen. Fisk's action in the case of John Overton, of Tennessee, recently pardoned, and has telegraphed Gov. Brownlow to retain the pardon, as having been granted through mistake.

The Salisbury Union Banner, printed in North Carolina, characterizes the Virginia Press as "narrow-minded" and 'selfish.' The Banner must have been born some distance from "the line."

Norfolk Virginian.

The Banner did not intend those epithets to apply to the Virginia Press of the present day. In refering to a Virginia contemporary, the Banner said that it was far above that narrow-minded selfishness, which had heretofore characterized the Virginia Press. This reference was to a time anterior to the close of the war. But since that bloody period, the Virginia Press has undergone material change, and the Banner is free to admit, that its tone is now elevated and magnanimous—none more so than the Virginian.

☞ The following is a telegram from President Johnson to Governor Holden:

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27th, 1865.

W. W. Holden, Prov. Gov:

Accept my thanks for the noble and efficient manner in which you have discharged your duty as Provisional Governor. You will be sustained by the Government.

The results of the recent elections in North Carolina have greatly damaged the prospects of the State in the restoration of the governmental relations.—Should the action and spirit of the Legislature be in the same direction, it will greatly increase the mischief already done, and might be fatal.

It is hoped the action and spirit manifested by the Legislature will be so directed as rather to repair than to increase the difficulties under which the State has already placed itself.

SENATE.

Nov. 28th, 1865.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock, A. M. by Mr. M. L. Wiggins, Senator from Halifax.

On motion of Mr. Leach of Davidson, a recess for a half hour was taken, a number of Senators being absent on account of a misunderstanding as to the hour of meeting.

At the expiration of the recess, the Senate proceeded to ballot for Speaker.

Those who voted for Mr. Ferebee were Messrs. Cooper, Eure, Faison, Harris of Franklin, Howard, Keener, Latham, Leitch of Robeson, McEachen, McLean, McCleese, Morehead, Pitchford, Sanders, Shober, Stanford, Whitford, Wiggins, Williams and Wilson—20.

For Mr. Settle, Messrs. Arendell, Black, Blount, Bogle, Boner, Boyd, Bullock, Covington, Coward, Cowles, Garner, Gash, Gorrell, Harris of Rutherford, Jones of Columbus, Jones of Wake, Leach of Davidson, Morgan, Pool, Snead, Warren and Winstead—22.

Mr. Ferebee voted for Mr. Whitford, Messrs. Whitford and Leach of Davidson, conducted Mr. Settle to the chair, who addressed the Senate as follows:

SENATORS,

You have called upon me to preside over your deliberations at a very important period in our country's history.

The late attempt to sever North Carolina's connection with the federal Union proved unsuccessful. She did not get out of the Union, and yet, unfortunately, the e are too many evidences on all hands to remind us that we are not fully in the Union.

I am glad to see the wisdom and patriotism of the State so well represented in the Senate.

The people are looking with great anxiety to the Legislature and expect us to do something to restore North Carolina to her former proud position as a member of the Union, until that is accomplished, I fear that we can do but little to ameliorate the condition of our people.

Let us unite our labors and our prayers for the accomplishment of this great, leading object, and let us give to the great statesman and patriot, who presides over our common country, a generous support in his efforts to reconstruct the government.

I am not insensible to the high compliment in calling upon me to preside over the deliberations of the Senate, but I rely upon your kindness and sympathy to sustain me in the discharge of the duties which the position imposes upon me.

On motion of Mr. Shober, the Senate proceeded to vote for Principal Clerk.

Mr. Shober nominated Mr. J. A. Engleford.

Mr. Winstead nominated Mr. J. W. Alspaugh, of Forsythe.

Mr. Englehard received 25 votes.

Mr. Alspaugh, 18.

Mr. H. Brogden, 1.

Mr. Englehard having received a majority of the votes cast was declared duly elected.

On motion of Mr. Morgan, the Senate then proceeded to elect an Assistant Clerk.

Messrs. J. W. Albertson of Perquimans, and H. W. Husted and W. W. Whitaker, were nominated.

On the second ballot, Mr. Whitaker's name having been withdrawn, Mr. Albertson was elected by the following vote: Albertson 24; Husted 21.

The Senate completed its organization by electing James Page of Randolph, Principal, and C. C. Talley of Chatham, Assistant Door-keeper.

On motion of Mr. Shober, a message was sent to the House of Commons announcing the Senate's organization.

The Senate then adjourned until 11 o'clock to morrow.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

November 28th.

The following members elect appeared, were qualified and took their seats, viz:

Messrs. Thompson of Bertie, Thigpen of Edgecombe, Moore of Martin, Hoke of Lincoln, Jenkins of Gaston, Stilly of Beaufort, and Faircloth of Greene.

Mr. Holderby's resolution, offered on yesterday, extending an invitation to the clergy to open the sessions of the House with prayer, was taken up and adopted.

On motion of Mr. Moore of Alamance,

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to examine into the legal qualifications of R. Y. McAden, a member from Alamance county duly elected to his seat in the House of Commons, and that the committee be requested to report to this House at its earliest convenience.

Mr. McAden said: That Dr. Moore, his colleague had introduced this resolution at his request, owing to a paragraph appearing in one of the City papers questioning his legal right to occupy a seat on this floor. That it was not his custom to notice such attacks, as they ordinarily did not influence his action one way or the other. That he had done this from the respect he had for President Johnson and his reconstruction policy, and the respect he had for the members of this House. That he could say sincerely that he did not desire, and he knew the constituents who did him the honor to send him here, did not wish to throw the slightest obstacle in the path we all desire so much to tread to our father's mansion, not even such a "straw as he was." He asked the House as a personal courtesy, that the resolution might pass, that the committee might promptly report, so that if he was not qualified, his seat might be declared vacant, and his constituents might proceed to fill the vacancy.

Messages were sent to the Senate informing that body of the due organization of the House, and proposing to raise a Joint Select Committee on Rules.

A committee of five was appointed to prepare rules for the government of the House. Meanwhile, the rules adopted at the session of 1860–61 are to be respected.

The House adjourned until to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

General Wade Hampton.

The Washington special correspondent of the New York Express presents the following sketch of General Wade Hampton:

General Wade Hampton, who came so near being elected Governor of South Carolina, is a grandson of Brigadier General Wade Hampton, of the Revolution and War of 1812, and a son of the late Colonel Wade Hampton, well known throughout the Union to the patrons of the turf.

Wade Hampton the elder was a native of Prince George County, Maryland, in the vicinity of Washington, and of obscure parentage. He entered the Revolutionary army as a wagon-master, and from that humble position gradually rose to the rank of Colonel. After the war he emigrated to South Carolina, and became a planter, and, on the acquisition of Louisiana, made such investments in that teritory, on the Mississippi, near New Orleans, as to render him, on his death in 1836, one of the richest men in the country.

On the breaking out of the rebellion, the present Wade Hampton was regarded as among the richest men at the South. He was originally opposed to secession—frankly confessed that he saw nothing in it but ruin to himself and his relatives; but when the war commenced, embarked in it with all the impetuosity of an ardent nature, and by his gallantry and skill as cavalry officer, soon attained the rank of Lieutenant General. In person he is described as one of the most strikingly elegant men of the day—very tall, with classical features, and a magnificent black beard—altogether, quite a Cavalier of the Bayard order.

His officers and men were devotedly attached to him—not more for his dauntless courage in the field than for those rare qualities of head and heart for which he is equally distinguished. At the celebrated conference between Generals Sherman and Johnston in North Carolina, I am informed that Wade Hampton, as he sat upon his horse, formed altogether the noticeable feature of the occasion, and attracted the unwearied admiration of the Federal soldiers who were present, to whom he had been previously unknown. As one of them remarked afterwards, "Hampton looked as if he had stepped, horse and all out of a canvass by Titian or Velasquez."

Wade Hampton is about forty years of age, and with the exercise of prudence and moderation, will not unlikely, unless destitute of ambition, fill a very prominent place in the future history of the South.

GENERAL NEWS.

Portland, Nov. 23.—The Nova Scotia, with Liverpool dates to the 17th, arrived here today.

Cotton had declined a half penny on sales of the week, closing at nominal rates. Sales for the week amounted to 56,000 bales. Orleans middling 29 pence. The breadstuff market was bare and provisions were firm. Consols 89¼. Five twenties 73½ to 74.

The schooner William and Frederick, from Mobile for Caidiff, had been abandoned at sea and all on board perished but the master.

New York, Nov. 28. The Alabama, with Southampton dates to the 18th has arrived.

The Ocean Rogue of Savannah was wrecked at Malabide.

All the London journals publish the correspondence between Minister Adams and Lord Russell in reference to the Alabama claim.

The Times earnestly hoped that Waddell and men would not be liberated without communicating with Minister Adams, and declines at present to accept Waddell's statement as true.

Bullion in the Bank of England had increased three hundred and seventy one pounds. Rosin unsettled. Spirits Turpentine market bare and holders demand an advance.

Boston, Nov. 28. The Boston Board of Trade have adopted resolutions looking to an increase of cotton raising in the Southern States. The Board has requested the government, that if in their sphere of its legitimate powers, to forthwith organize such portions of the laboring classes now in the South as cannot be reached by private capital.

Washington, Nov. 28. The government has received no confirmation of the recent exciting reports concerning the collision between our troops and the French forces on the Rio Grande.

CAPT. GURLEY TO BE EXECUTED.

Nashville, Nov. 28. Capt. Frank Gurley, the murderer of Gen. McCook, reached here from Huntsville, but was sent back by instructions from the War Department, where he will be executed Friday.

Nashville, Nov. 25. The special court martial ordered to try the assassins of W. Hefferman convenes to-morrow morning, with Maj. Gen. R. W. Johnson as President.

John House was shot last night on the Franklin pike, one mile from the city, by a negro, and mortally wounded.

Gen. Thomas has rescinded the order, previously issued, prohibiting citizens from carrying arms.

COLLISION ON THE MISSISSIPPI.

Memphis, Nov. 26. There was a collision last night between the Niagara and Post Boy on the Mississippi river, seven miles above Helena. The Niagara sunk in twenty feet water.

One hundred deck passengers, mostly discharged colored soldiers, were drowned.

The cabin passengers and crew were all saved.

The Niagara was valued at $150,000, and was not insured.

MUDERER OF THE CUBAN, ORTEGA. ARRESTED.

New York, Nov. 27. Pellicer, arrested for the murder of Ortega, at Brooklyn, confessed yesterday, and gave information which led to the discovery and arrest of Gonzales, the other murder.

The money was in drafts, and there was only about the sum of one hundred dollars in gold and bills, amounting in the aggregate to about $5,000. The payment of the drafts has been stopped.

The American Freedman's Aid Commission have issued an urgent appeal to pastors of churches who have not provided an object for their contributions on the day of Thanksgiving to devote them to the objects of the commission. They represent that, without immediate and efficient aid, seventy thousand freedmen are likely to perish this winter in Georgia and Alabama alone.

Gov. Parsons of Alabama, has sent his message to the Legislature. He urges the immediate adoption of the amendment to the constitution of the United States. He is opposed to the proposed slave code, and recommends instead a vagrant act, the provisions of which will bear upon whites and blacks alike.

The superindendant of the recruiting service at Carlisle, Penn., hrs been ordered to forward four hundred and fifty recruits to the Fourth U. States Cavalry, now serving in Texas under Gen. Sheridan.

A project is on foot for the consolidation of the cities of Washington and Georgetown, D. C., into one municipality. They are now under the control of five distinct authorities.

Caucus of Republican Members of Congress.—It is stated, says the Baltimore Sun of yesterday, that a number of the Republican members of Congress and outside politicians, held a caucus at the Astor House, N. Y., on Saturday evening, and pledged themselves to the policy of excluding every Southern applicant for a seat in Congress that cannot take the test oath. Governor Fenton, according to the correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger, is said to have suggested, as a solution of the difficulty, that Congress organize without the Southern members, then, if deemed expedient, proceed at once to so modify the test oath as to enable the applicants to take their seats with a clear conscience; but the meeting was not prepared to go that length, rather preferring for the present to back up Mr. Clerk McPherson in omitting the Southern States from the roll call, and trusting to subsequent events for their admission on conditions that will be acceptable.

The Albany and Boston Railroad sends out nearly two hundred cars of freight every day.

New Skirt For 1866.

The Great Invention of the Age in

HOOP SKIRTS.

J. W. BRADLEY'S New Patent DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (or double) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION consists of DUPLEX (or two) ELLIPTIC PURE REFINED STEEL SPRINGS, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable SPRING ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the Single Spring, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful Shape more than twice as long as any single spring skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promonade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day wil never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

The Hoops are covered with 2-ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the single yarn covering which is used on all Single Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps etc., etc, which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect Shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

FOR SALE.

I OFFER for sale a small Tract of Land situated on the N. C R. R, 2½ miles South of Salisbury. This Tract contains about 300 acres, more or less, 60 of which has been recently cleared and is fresh, and new, and exceedingly fertile—a part of the 60 acres is high meadow land, and constitutes about half of the whole arable land now cleared. The meadow may be used for cereal or grass purposes, and is equally valuable for both. The ballance of the land is well timbered with virgin growth and convenient to a good market. There is also a "Gold Mine" of tested value on the same Tract, to which I propose to attach 30 acres or more of wooded land, which I propose to sell seperately. I shall remain in Salisbury for two weeks, where I shall be happy to treat with any person wishing to purchase, after which time I shall intrust the sale of the above to the care of Col. B. Craige my accounted agent. The purchaser can have the benefit of supplying himself with 60 bbls of corn and all of the farming implements &c. necesary to conduct the farm.

NOTICE.

MODEL SEWING MACHINE.

(From the New York Herald)

Prominent among the mechanical triumphs of this most ingenious age, common honesty compels us to notice the Empire Sewing Machine, commended as justly styled perfection itself. Useful as have been the various sewing machines, from time to time presented to the public, each one of them has been cursed with some radical defect, which detracts from general utility. Warned by the experience of his predecessors, the inventor of the Empire Machine has produced an instrument, combining all the advantages for which others are vaunted, and obviating every defect which can be attributed to them by the most fastidious critic.

The Empire Machine is a marvellous combination of simplicity, economy and perfect workmanship, being durable, free from liability to get out of order, noiseless, and easy of, operation. its mechanical contrivance is such as to secure stability, freedom from accident, and accuracy as to workmanship. By the use of the patented shuttle and straight needle, it makes a stitch, which can neither rip nor ravel, at the same time, it can operate perfectly upon every species of material from leather to cambric. with threads of cotton, linen or silk, from the finest to the coarsest number.

As the Empire Machine is gradually supplanting its more antique rivals, no one in want of a useful instrument of this description, be he or she tailor, coachmaker, dressmaker or seamstress, can do otherwise than secure one of these economical and inimitable machines, suited alike for family and manufacturing purposes. The office of the Empire Manufacturing Co. is at No. 536 Broadway, New York City, where they are now supplying these Empire Machines a prices far below the real value of the instrument.—New York Herald.

LITERATURE, SCIENCE, AND ART.

New Volume begins January, 1865.

THE ECLECTIC MAGAZINE is as its name indicates, a selection from other magazines and periodicals. These selections are carefully made each month, from the entire range of foreign Periodicals. In this respect it is entirely unlike other monthlies, and has no rival. The following are some of the works from which selections are made:

London Quarterly,	Revue de Deux Mondes,
British Quarterly,	London Society,
North British Review,	Bentley's Miscellany,
Popular Science Review,	Cornhill Magazine,
Saturday Review,	Fraser's Magazine,
Leisure Hour,	Temple Bar,
Westminster Review,	Chambers's Journal,
Dublin University Magazine	Edinburgh Review,
Art Journal,	London National Review.

We have also arranged to secure choice selections from the FRENCH, GERMAN, AND OTHER CONTINENTAL PERIODICALS, translated especially for the ECLECTIC, and it is hoped this new feature will add greatly to the variety and value of the work.

EMBELLISHMENTS,

Each number is embellished with one or more FINE STEEL ENGRAVINGS—portraits of eminent men or illustrative of important historical events.

To the People of the South!

THE OLD

"EXAMINER" REVIVED!!

The undersigned, having purchased its good will and subscription books, proposes to revive, at an early day, the old Richmond Examiner, of which the late John M. Daniel was editor-in-chief, and the undersigned his constant associate for the entire period of the war.

It is believed that the public will recognize an appropriate and practical idea in this enterprise.—Efforts to revive other papers in the South are announced, and it is certainly neither a visionary nor unworthy endeavour for the literary associates of a gallant spirit that now sleeps in the grave to essay honour to his memory and a service to the public by reviving the old Examiner newspaper, so long the ornament of Southern letters, an example at once of the scholarship and chivalry of Virginia; and perhaps the only school in the South of pure and classick English distinct from the models and redeemed from the innovations of Northern instructors.

The fame of the old Richmond Examiner reached to the most distant parts of the world. The paper was well known in Europe. It was pronounced by a distinguished Northern politician "the best exponent of the civilization of the South." It was a school of literary scholarship for the youth of the South; the glass of Southern chivalry; an example of independence, of courage, of iron spirit in newspaper literature, which its chief illustrated in his own noble and severe life, and defended more than once on the field of honor, when the undersigned stood with in the vindication of the freedom of the press.

Surely there are many people in the South who will unite in an effort to revive a newspaper which was an ornament to its literature and a school for its virtues. The task is an ambitious one. But the undersigned attempts it in no mean or flagging spirit. He has already undertaken to marshal a corps of the old writers for the Examiner; he will be able to reproduce its typographical features, and present to Southern readers a fac simile of their old acquaintance; and he fervently trusts and resolutely pledges every resource of intellect and will to breathe again in this form of material resurrection the same spirit of fearless criticism, chivalrous contest and unhesitating encounter with abuse that animated it of old.

The undersigned owns some pledges of affection in this enterprise. His relations with the late John M. Daniel was close, intimate and affectionate to the day of his death. And it will indeed be a labor and aspiration of love if he can produce some echo from the grave of lamented friendship and rekindle from the ashes of the past and the dead some of the fire that illuminated the familiar pages of our literature.

In the present uncertainty of political questions—the disappointment of old issues and the imperfect development of the new—it would, of course, be impossible to state with precision the political career of the Examiner. But this may be said with safety; that it will use all its influence in restoring order, tranquility and prosperity to the people; and while aspiring to be brave and independent, it will avoid every scheme of faction and disorganization, devote itself to the works of conservatism, and sustain, at every risk, the present President of the United States as long as he fulfills those noble indications he has already given of planting again the rights of constitutional liberty in the South, setting his face against the Malignants of the North, and thus entitling himself to such common support of conservative men in all parts of the country as will secure the continuation of his wise and patriotic administration.

No pains or expense will be spared to make the Examiner the newspaper of the South. For every department of it the services of the most accomplished and active writers will be secured. Special correspondents will be posted in New York and Washington and other important centres of intelligence in the country. A former active editor of the old Examiner, Edward A. Pollard, will be employed as correspondent from Europe in which country he proposes to write a History of the War, and to form a familiar acquaintance with the politics of Europe, especially in connection with American questions and topicks. This correspondence will constitute a special feature of interest in our paper; it will enliven its columns from week to week with the productions of an animated pen; and it will afford our readers a singularly good opportunity to make themselves acquainted with cotemporary Europe, and to apprehend the growing interest of our foreign relations.

The undersigned was recently the editor of the Richmond Times, but in consequence of a disagreement with the part proprietor of that paper, he has been forced to leave it and appeal to the civil courts for his rights; and he now proposes to himself the nobler task of reviving a paper endeared to the South by many memories of the past, and associated with so much that is admirable in its heroick and literary name in history. He calls upon the old subscribers of the Examiner, from Virginia to Texas, to rally to its support, to renew their subscriptions, and to assist in the revival of a paper which has existed for three-quarters of a century, and which has ever been solicitous to honor truth and virtue, prompt to chastise abuses, and ambitious to defend and adorn the civilization and literature of the South.

Advertisements will be inserted on the same terms as published by the other Richmond papers.

The first number of the Examiner will contain a sketch of the life of the late John M. Daniel, whose name is historical in connection with the Virginia press, and than whom the annals of newspaper literature in America show few more extraordinary men—certainly no greater master of vigor and satire in composition. The first numbers will also contain a full and complete account of the evacuation of Richmond, with all the particulars of the surrender of the city, the entry of the troops, the great conflagration, &c., taken from the advance sheets of E. A. Polard's "Fourth Year of the War," now in press. This account will be found intensely interesting; and aside from this consideration, every one should secure and preserve these numbers, as they will be valuable hereafter as affording a true and faithful report of what the South has had hitherto but the imperfect narratives which have been written and published in the Northern press.

The old contributors and correspondents of the Examiner are particularly requested to communicate with the undersigned.

All letters and communications of every character should be addressed to

H. RIVES POLLARD,
Richmond, Va.

Wanted, an Agent in every town in Virginia and all the Southern States.

Also, immediately, twenty active and enterprising men to travel and canvass for the paper—a fine chance for men out of employment. H. R. P.

PROSPECTUS.

THE publication of the NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN will be resumed in Fayetteville, on Wednesday 2d January next.

Confidently relying upon the hearty suport which we have heretofore received, we shall endeavor to render the paper more attractive, both in appearance and matter, than it has ever been, sparing neither pains nor expense, in the accomplishment of this purpose.

With the passing away of old things, a new spirit of activity, energy and enterprise has been infused into every department of secular thought and business. Why should not the CHURCH, also, partake of this progressive advancement? Why should she, of all the agencies, brought to bear with such tremendous force upon the civilization of the present time, be inefficient, laggard and almost hopeless, in the working out of her own destiny?

To arouse the CHURCH to the importance and necessity of WORK: of unceasing, restless, tireless energy in the service of her Master and Head; this shall be our first and chiefest aim. In this we need assistance. We are not alone, sufficient for these things. Our brethren must help us in every way; contributions from their own stores of thought and study; by zealous co-operation in a common cause for the benefit of all; by extending our circulation throughout all our borders, and thus giving us both the means and the opportunity of performing well the work to which we have consecrated all that we have, and all that we hope for on the earth.
